Zula Hubbard

Zula Mabel Hubbard, 83 year old resident of Forest Grove, Ore., since 1934, died at the Forest View Convalescent Home in Forest Grove, Tuesday evening, July 15, following an extended illness.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 18 at the Chapel of the United Church of Christ in Forest Grove with the Rev. John Kelly, minister of the church officiating and Mrs. Robert Shotwell, organist. Concluding committal rites were at the Forest View Cemetery, Forest Grove.

Miss Hubbard was born August 31, 1885 at Trippville, Wis., the daughter of Andrew T. and Alice Tripp Hubbard the eldest of a family of nine children. She received her formal education in the schools of Wisconsin and South Dakota following which she taught elementary grades in the rural schools of those two states and then later she became secretary and bookkeeper for the Fred C. Bowles Co., of Groton.

In 1934 she went to Forest Grove with her parents and following their death, she opened the Hubbard Maternity Home at 2604 Pacific Ave., Forest Grove. Nearly 500 children were born in this home during the years she operated it. Known as "Auntie Hubbard" to most of her patients and children she helped to deliver and care for she had followed the progress of the infants through their schooling and marriages and into their own parenthood. She was a member of the Methodist church of Groton.

Surviving are three brothers, Fay Hubbard, Moorhead, Minn.; Glenn Hubbard, McMinville, Ore., and Ronald Hubbard, Groton; and three sisters, Mrs. I. G. (Velma) Eastman, Hillsboro, Wis.; Mrs. Fred C. (Edythe) Bowles, Webster and Mrs. Fred S. (Lyndall) Richards, Forest Grove.
